

Whitehouse Institute has prepared readers/resources in support of the delivery of individual subjects, which encompass the Bachelor of Design degree. These reader/resources are also available for download without charge from the student zone at www.whitehouse-design.edu.au for students not wishing to purchase. Semester 2 readers to be purchased/downloaded before the commencement of semester 2 classes. Students will be required to bring in their reader/resources to specific classes.

Please note: not every subject will have a reader/resources listing.

How to order:

Complete this form and return it with payment or authority to: Finance at Sydney Campus or Student Administration at Melbourne Campus. Your reader/resources will be available for collection upon receipt of payment from the Library or from your specific class.
