Initiation of Industry Liaisons

1. Whitehouse staff who are the first point of contact for an industry liaison proposal are to refer the proposal to the Industry Liaison Manager. The Industry Liaison Manager will either undertake further communication with the external party and provide information relevant to the proposal or assist the Whitehouse staff member to further the discussion with the external party.
2. The Industry Liaison Manager/staff member should first establish that the external party is a legitimate and bona fide entity that poses no obvious risk to Whitehouse or to the health and safety of students. This is done by sending a copy of the Whitehouse Industry Liaison Guide along with a request to complete and return the Whitehouse Industry Liaison email Template (or a modified version of the template, should the nature of the proposal require it).
3. Upon receipt of the completed Industry Liaison Template and confirming the bona fides of the external party, the Industry Liaison Manager will follow up with one of the following internal actions, depending on the nature of the industry agreement:
  - a) the opportunity with all information details is sent by email to the most appropriate cohort of students. This email will include an attachment of the Whitehouse Institute of Design, Australia Industry Liaison Guide
  - b) a similar procedure as outlined in point a) will be used in the case of part-time and full-time Job Placements, except that the Industry Liaison Guide should NOT be included
  - c) should the liaison involve an 'exclusive partnership' between Whitehouse and the external party (i.e.: Whitehouse internal resource allocation, and / or curriculum time allocation such as is the case with exclusive competitions or exclusive events), the Industry Liaison Manager will provide the external party with a copy of the Whitehouse Industry Liaison Policy and prepare a brief to outline the proposal for the Whitehouse Executive Management Committee (EMC) to consider. The brief must include the following information:
    - explanation of the type of partnership that has been agreed
    - benefits of the partnership to students, Whitehouse and the industry partner
    - explanation of how the partnership links to the course curriculum and student learning outcomes, if applicable
    - outline of the extent of Whitehouse internal resource allocation (i.e.: time, staff, students, financial) if any and the agreed timeframe, duration and if possible actual start and finish dates for the partnership.

Approval of Industry Liaisons that are Considered to be Exclusive Partnerships

1. If the Industry Liaison Manager considers a proposed industry partnership to become an exclusive partnership, they will liaise with the Whitehouse Executive Management Committee (EMC) to determine if the partnership proposal should be accepted or declined.
2. If accepted, Terms and Conditions of that acceptance including whether or not the partnership requires a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) will be determined. If needed the MOU will be drawn-up by the Industry Liaison Manager for signing by the two parties.
3. If declined, the Industry Liaison Manager will communicate the decision to the external party. The decision will be minuted at the EMC and reported to the Learning, Teaching, Assessment and Curriculum Committee (LTACC). This same procedure, or a modified version which does not require an MOU, may be appropriate in some circumstances for collaborations and competitions.

	Reporting of Industry Liaisons The Industry Liaison Manager will be responsible for reporting outcomes of all industry liaisons to the Executive Management Committee. All Industry Liaisons are to be recorded and stored in the Whitehouse Network using a logical and sequential filing system.
