Special consideration

A student may apply for special consideration if they consider that illness or misadventure adversely affected their performance in an assessment task or they were prevented from attendance or submission of a task due to circumstances beyond their control, such as serious illness or hospitalisation.

Special consideration can only be granted due to compassionate or compelling circumstances that are generally those beyond the control of the student and which have an impact upon the student's course progress or wellbeing.

Extension

An extension may be granted if the student is unable to submit an assessment task by the due date, due to circumstances beyond their control.

Adjustment of assessment mark

An adjustment of assessment mark may be granted if the student submits an assessment task by the due date, but circumstances beyond the student's control has affected the assessment outcome. If granted, the mark will be adjusted to compensate for shortcomings in quality of work.

Reasonable adjustment of assessment mark

A reasonable adjustment of an assessment task may be granted if the student is unable to attempt the given task due to a long or short term specific disability or special need.

Application Process

The following process applies for students who apply for special consideration:

- The application must be made as soon as practical prior to an assessment task due date once the compassionate or compelling circumstances are identified.
- Students must submit a completed.
- 'Application for Special Consideration' form to the Course Director.

Extension

- Where the application for special consideration requests an extension, the application is reviewed by the Course Director. The Course Director will advise the student of their decision within 2 working days.

Adjustment of assessment mark

- Where the application for special consideration requests an adjustment of assessment mark, the application is reviewed by the Course Director and the Academic Director and/or Vice Academic Coordinator. The Program Director will advise the student of their decision within 2 working days.

Reasonable adjustment of assessment mark

- Where the application for special consideration requests a reasonable adjustment of assessment task, Student Administration will arrange a meeting with the student, the Course Director and an administration staff member. During this meeting, the parties will negotiate an adjusted work plan.

Students will be required to comply with the Whitehouse code of Conduct and all relevant policies and procedures. This procedure is governed by the:
