

You are to complete the Application to Refund Tuition Fees or Re-Credit FEE-HELP Balance form if you are requesting refund of all or part of your pre-paid tuition fees or incurred a FEE-HELP debt for a study period if:

- You are or were an enrolled student of Whitehouse Institute within the last 12 months – this includes domestic and international students
- You paid your tuition fees upfront or you incurred a FEE-HELP debt
- The census date has now passed and because of exceptional circumstances you withdrew from or deferred your enrolment (partially or in full) before the last teaching date of the study period and did not successfully complete the enrolled subject(s).

What exceptional circumstances are accepted?

Each application will be examined and determined on its merits. As a general guide, exceptional circumstances include those that are beyond your control; i.e. a situation occurs which a reasonable person would consider is not due to the person's action or inaction, either direct or indirect, and for which the person is not responsible. This situation must be unusual, uncommon or abnormal.

AND

did not make its full impact on you until on or after the census date; i.e. your circumstances occurred

- before the census date, but worsen after that day, or
- before the census date, but the full effect or magnitude does not become apparent until on or after that day, or
- on or after the census date.

AND/OR

made it impracticable for you to complete the course/subject requirements; i.e.

- undertake the necessary study required, or attend sufficient lectures or tutorials or meet other compulsory attendance requirements in order to meet your compulsory course/subject requirements, or
- complete the required work, or
- sit the required examinations or complete any other course/subject requirements.

Exceptional circumstances may include:

- Medical reasons - where your medical condition only became known after enrolment OR the census date OR your medical condition existed prior to the census date, continued past that date and deteriorated to the extent that you are unable to continue your studies.
- Family/personal reasons - due to unforeseen personal/family reasons that are beyond your control you are unable to continue with your studies.

Please note - exceptional circumstances do not include:

- a lack of knowledge or understanding of FEE-HELP regulations or
- a lack of knowledge or understanding of the Whitehouse Institutes enrolment procedures and policies

Application Period

Your application for Refund or Re-Credit FEE-HELP balance (application) must reach the Student Administration Manager within 12 months from the day you formally discontinued your studies. If you have not formally discontinued your enrolment or enrolled subjects, your application must reach the Student Administration Manager within 12 months from the last day of the study period in which you were to undertake the enrolled subjects.

If not supplied at submission of application, supporting documentation is required within 28 days of receipt of your application. A lack of knowledge or understanding of the requirements for applying for refund of tuition fees or re-crediting of FEE-HELP Balance is not a valid reason for applying after the deadline.

It is most important that your application reaches the Student Administration Manager within the 12-month application period. Applications received after these dates will not be considered. This maybe waived if Whitehouse is satisfied if you demonstrate the circumstances which prevented you from submitting the application within the allowable 12 months.

Supporting documentation

Your application will be considered on its merits in conjunction with the supporting documentation you provide. Your supporting documentation should provide enough detail for the Student Administration Manager to advise the Executive Director to make an informed decision regarding your case.

What supporting documentation do I need to provide?

It is most important that you provide independent supporting documentation to support your claims. It is not sufficient to provide only a personal statement outlining your exceptional circumstances.

Depending on your reasons for application, you may also be asked to provide a statement from a doctor and/or counsellor to verify your claims. Statements made by parents/guardians, spouse/partners or relatives are not considered to be independent documentation for these purposes.

Supporting documentation should include

- Medical reasons – medical certificates, a statement from a doctor indicating: the date your medical condition began or changed; how your condition affected your ability to study; and when it became apparent that you could not continue with your studies.
- Family/personal reasons – a statement from a doctor, counsellor or independent member of the community (e.g. A Justice of the Peace or a Minister of Religion) indicating: the date your personal circumstance began or changed; how your circumstance affected your ability to study; and when it became apparent that you could not continue with your studies.

What happens to my application after it has been lodged with the Student Administration Manager?

1. Upon receipt of the application form with original supporting documentation by Student Administration Manager, you will be issued with an acknowledgement (if you lodge it in-person). If you send your application via post or email, you will be emailed an acknowledgment advising date of receipt. If you have not received an acknowledgment of your application within two weeks of lodgement, you should contact Student Administration to follow up. It is recommended that you retain a copy the completed application, all supporting documentation and proof of submission.
2. The decision to approve or not approve the application will be considered principally on the basis of your independent supporting documentation. It is your responsibility to ensure all relevant documentation is provided. Whitehouse reserves the right to validate any documentation supplied to support your claim.
3. The application, along with supporting documentation and any relevant student administration documentation will be forwarded to the Executive Director for review and decision. The Student Administration Manager will then advise you in writing of a decision within 45 working days that either the application is approved or disallowed, or if further documentation/validation is required.
4. If approved, in the event of pre-paid tuition fees, it will be paid in favour of the student or your nominated agent within 4 weeks of approval. In the event of FEE-HELP re-credit, the FEE-HELP balance will be remitted.

If not approved and you are not satisfied with the decision, you may apply in writing for a review. Your application for review must be sent within 28 days of receiving the original advice. You must state the reason why you are applying for a review. Further documentation may be provided.

5. The Whitehouse Institute will acknowledge receipt of the request for a review.
6. You will be notified in writing of the reviewer's decision and the reviewer's reasons for making the decision within 45 working days.
7. If you are still dissatisfied with the results of the review, you have the right to appeal to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT) for a review of the reviewer's decision. The Whitehouse Institute will participate in any procedures as deemed necessary by the AAT to resolve the matter.
